

Tri-M Music
HONOR SOCIETY

The Tri-M Music Honor Society is the international music honor society for high school students. It is designed to recognize students for their academic and musical achievements, reward them for their accomplishments and service activities, and to inspire other students to excel at music and leadership.

Examples of Potential Tri-M Activities

- Performance opportunities, especially as community service
- Mentoring of younger musicians
- Opportunity to be mentored by collegiate/professional musicians
- Help with organization and support of acoustic coffeehouses and fundraising activities
- Serving as ushers & reception hosts at ERSD concerts
- Organize instrument donation drives
- Photo, video, and audio recording of concerts
- Social and musical activities

To Apply

1. Students must be entering 10th, 11th, or 12th grade
2. Must have completed at least one year of participation in at least one high school level music class (Band, chorus, select choir, jazz band, percussion ensemble), and are currently enrolled in at least one of those courses.
3. 95 average in high school music ensemble courses, all years (submit copy of final report card)
4. 88 overall average in 2016-17 (submit copy of final report card)
